

Golden Set Privacy Policy

Who Has Access to my Personal Information?

Disclosure to Employees

Golden Set will only provide access to your personal information to those employees who need it in order to assist you.

Disclosure to Service Providers

We may use leading service providers to assist us with customer service, shipping and other key functions. We will only share information necessary for these service providers to perform their role in serving you on behalf of Golden Set. To reduce the risk of fraud or misuse of personal information, Golden Set may also verify your personal information with third party service providers. These third parties will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement that binds them to keep all customer information confidential.

Legal Disclosure

Golden Set may disclose your information as permitted or required by law; for example:

- to a government institution or other person or entity that has asserted its lawful authority to obtain the information;
- where we have reasonable grounds to believe the information could be useful in the investigation of unlawful activity;
- to comply with a subpoena or warrant or an order made by a court, person or entity with jurisdiction to compel the production of information;
- to comply with court rules regarding the production of records and information;
- to our legal counsel; and
- to an archival institution.

How does Golden Set protect my Information?

The security of your personal information is a high priority for Golden Set. Although we cannot take responsibility for any theft, misuse, unauthorized disclosure, loss, alteration or destruction of data by a third party, we take reasonable precautions to prevent such unfortunate occurrences.

When is my Information Removed?

We keep your information as long as we need it for the products you're using and for a reasonable time thereafter or to meet any legal requirements. Information can be removed from our records at your request.

How do I Access my Personal Information?
